... 2. The Collector has reported that no other political sufferer has applied for lands in the Compack block under reference and that Sri. Basappa, the Political sufferer applicant, ~~from the~~ has Expressed his unwilling ness to accept any other land than the land in question which has been selected by him (S.no. 301/2 etc). It is submitted that it does not appear desirable to depart from the general rule in para 6 of G.O. no: 1523 Rev dt 11.6.49, for the sake of one Political sufferer. It is therefore for orders whether the Collector may be asked to assign the Political sufferer some other available lands, and if in case, the Political sufferer refuses to accept the land offered to him to take steps under orders issued in G.O. no: 849 Rev. dt. 21.3.50 for orders.

I can really see no objection. M. Venkat. We are also of the opinion so far thought of applying for this land Prof. 11.

This refers to the case of assignment to a political sufferer in Bellary district. He has applied for the assignment of 15 acres which form part of a compact block consisting of about 75 acres in all. As they are in a compact block, the Collector has asked for permission to assign the lands in question. The Board has recommended the proposals of the Collector.

2. Although the lands are strictly speaking not available for assignment because they form part of a compact block, I think Government should be prepared to make exceptions in deserving cases. The applicant is eligible for assignment and I see no reason why we should refuse it merely because this compact block will be split up by this assignment. No other political sufferer has applied for lands in this compact block. It seems to me that we need not prohibit assignment to this individual merely because the compact block as such may be suitable for assignment to some co-operative society or other at a future date.

3. However, H.M. may consider the note put up by the office and my note above and decide whether in the circumstances, we should or should not relax the rules and allow the assignment.
